ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS

THURSDAY, OCT. 5, 1916

WHEN THE CHANCELLOR IS DEPOSED

Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg will lose in his contest with the element in Germany which desires to make black white and red blue. The chancellor did not have the foresight to declare that little Belgium was in league with the devil, and he apologized for "the great wrong we have done Belgium." In the eyes of German annexationists that was treason.

The chancellor even desired an understanding with England in the hope of warding off the awful catastrophe that has engulfed Europe in blood. Horrors! To think of a German's recognizing anything good in a country that regards its treaty obligations as binding!

The chancellor endeavored to placate rather than arouse neutrals in the submarine warfare and it was due to his earnestness that Germany is not at war today with the United States. In their desire to see England punished, in their prayers, "Gott strafe England," those Germans can find nothing in the conduct of the chancellor to admire. He is a weakling and must go.

Probably the chancellor will hang on a while longer, but the emperor will throw him overboard one of these days, and the old submarine policy will be resumed. We know what Mr. Wilson would do in the event American lives are sacrificed, but we don't know what Mr. Hughes or his secretary of state, Colonel Roosevelt, would do.

ECHO OF THE PAST

Investigation of the campaign contributions of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, just ordered by a federal judge in the District of Columbia, will serve to rattle a number of skeletons in railroad and political closets. That the Louisville and Nashville has been a generous contributor to campaign funds there is little doubt, judging from the reports of the last several years, but all efforts to have an accounting have failed.

Just why railroads and other corporations should want to spend their money in buying up politicians—and some newspapers—we have never been able to learn. A subsidized paper or politician is as spotted as a leopard, and even the most casual reader is able to discern the difference between the genuine and the spurious. Time was, however, when big business bought its way through, or tried to do it, but the result has been that such corporations eventually got it in the neck in worse manner than was due them had they been honest.

The public will regard the exhibition of names and figures in the Louisville and Nashville investigation as a chapter from a dead past, because it is not reasonable to believe that good money is going to waste in these piping times of publicity, check stubs and probing committees.

NO PARALYSIS HERE

There is not a case of infantile paralysis in Hickory, there has been none here this summer and there is not likely to be one here. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hatfield spent several weeks in a suburb of Baltimore the past summer, but they were as careful as parents can be with their children, not allowing them to be exposed at any time, and having a physician, and the Baltimore health officer and Dr. Rupert Blue to inspect the youngsters before they left. They arrived here on September 27. The children are well; but are under quarantine.

A number of people have inquired about the case, but the Record, having been told of it by a physician, considered that it did not need mentioning, but for the benefit of the public it should be stated that the Hatfield children are well and strong. The state health authorities did not know all the facts when the quarantine was placed, but it was much better, as Mr. Hatfield remarked to the Record, that one family should suffer inconvenience than that the whole community should fear the disease.

The American people should respond liberally to the appeal of the American Red Cross for funds to aid the starving and destitute Armenians. These people, or many of them, have accepted the Christian religion, and thousands have been persecuted, plundered and killed by the Turks. A crusade with cannon and shells against the Turks and Kurds would be better for the world, but since we cannot exterminate the pests, the next best thing is to relieve the misery brought on a defenseless people. The American people will respond.

If North Carolina is spending a lot of money unnecessarily, then we should like to know where it is going. Somebody ought to tell the public where the extravagance is. Mr. Linney will not be elected governor, but he will win the regard of thousands of Tar Heels by putting his finger on Democratic extravagance.

Editor Britton of the News and Observer never overlooks an opportunity to offer cheer to his friends, who are bound to hold him in perpetual gratitude.

A THOUSAND GREET MR. WEBB AT BURNVILLE

Burnsville, Oct. 5.—The Yancey county Democratic campaign opened Wednesday with speaking by Elector W. M. Wilson and Congressman E. Yates Webb. Mr. Wilson discussed both state and national issues and made a good speech. Mr. Webb also discussed state and national issues and contrasted the present state government with government under Republican rule. He discussed at length the work of the last congress, and drew great applause from the crowd when he told how President Wilson has kept American people out of war. At least 1,000 heard the speech.

Sir William Robertson, chief of the imperial staff of army headquarters, told the British people in a speech that they were winning the war slowly, but that every man and woman would have to give his full strength to win it decisively.

Frank A. Linney and Thomas Settle spoke in Salisbury Wednesday to several hundred Republican voters.

Frank Snipes of Winston-Salem, who has been in more or less liquor trouble during the past two years, has been arrested on the charge of selling liquor.

Times Are Good.

Factories are running, wages are high, crops are bringing record prices and money is plentiful; in fact times were never better in our section.

For the person who wants to get ahead, now is the golden opportunity, and every thoughtful person will see the wisdom of laying by something for the rainy day that always comes.

The young man who wastes the best earning period of his life without getting a start is handicapped throughout his life, while a little capital laid by in times of prosperity like these will help him over many a tight place.

The easiest and safest way to save money is to open a bank account, spend a little less than you make, and keep adding to your balance until an opportunity for investment comes.
